'Spreading The Magic'

- palette knife painting -

10th - 11th May

(2 days) workshop at my Buderim studio - Sunshine Coast

Welcome and thank you for your interest in my 'Spreading The Magic' palette knife workshop on 10th - 11th May (2 Days) being held at my home/studio in Buderim.

Love to have you come along as I know you will really enjoy this fabulous creative painting experience. Lots of fantastic creative stuff here mixed with heaps of useful techniques as you learn in the company of like-minded artists. Just darn good painting fun time. This workshop will offer you a fabulous opportunity to grow and develop valuable palette knife painting skills and techniques. It's also packed with heaps of essential information and generous amounts of painting tips and tricks to build your self-confidence allowing you to create fantastic paintings sooner.

Your creative artistic journey begins with exploring creative palette knife painting concepts expressed using thick paint, dynamic mark making with the palette knife and applying these techniques into your own paintings. Build confidence with the palette knife, adding mediums for easier painting and better results, simplify colour choices, textural effects, mark making and so much more all combine for fabulous and exciting results in your paintings to take home. Heaps of tips and tricks along the way for lots of great learning opportunities.

Focus on composition, proportions, dynamic cropping for best use of photo reference (what to use, what to leave out and why.?) Discover the power of colour choices and using thick paint for textural marks for effect and so much more... Simple but effective techniques which you can confidently take away with you and use again at home.

 Suitable for all student levels
